Life Group Discussion Questions

1. What is one area in your life where you have said that you wanted things to be different but to this point you have struggled to be willing to pay the price? What has been the biggest reason in your mind?
2. Why is sharing stories, one by one, of what God is doing so important? How do we make sure that the glory goes to God, even though we are putting forth the effort to be used?
3. When it comes to reaching people, what has been the most difficult price for you to pay? In what ways is your personal life too precious to you that keeps you from being completely effective?
4. What is your honest response to the changes as a result of the continuing financial struggles at The Pursuit? Explain your level of commitment financially to support The Pursuit and why you are where you are.
5. In anticipation of this coming Sunday, why do you think so many people are unwilling to pay the price to bring about the results that we say we want to see in all areas of life?
