Life Group Discussion Questions

1. In what area have you been able to apply having more faith in the certainty of future results? Share a difference it has made in your life.
2. Share an example of how you have been valuing the short term reward over the greater long term reward. What are you going to do differently in this area?
3. What did you think of the illustration of receiving $100 every time you resisted temptation? What does that show us? How can genuine faith help us in resisting temptation?
4. What do you believe would happen if you saw the future results of your sin? What would it take for you to believe in the future rewards enough to willingly choose to walk away from sin?
5. How can you as a Life Group help each other continue to fight to have faith over time so it doesn't fade?
